The Director-General also made two special mentions for the following two projects: A better room for UNESCO Library Services (ADM/LIB) – as model for improving workplace environments and ICTP Open Day (Trieste) – as a Best Practice to increase the visibility of UNESCO.

This year's award recipients truly represented the diversity of UNESCO's workforce. In this regard this award was a truly a multi-sectoral and inter-disciplinary celebration. Of the 200 selected employees, many of them came together from a wide variety of field offices including Lebanon, Thailand, Myanmar, Namibia, Brazil, China, Jamaica, Morocco, Indonesia, Egypt, and Senegal just to name a few. Winners from Program Sectors and Services located at Headquarters included Education, Natural Sciences, Culture, Bureau of the Comptroller, Division of Information Technology, Bureau of the Budget, Bureau of Human Resources Management, Bureau of Field Coordination as well as one Institute (IIEP).

Each selected team member received a UNESCO gift-box pen and a certificate of appreciation. A DVD of the ceremony will also be made available in the near future.

Our congratulations go out to all the winning teams.

Dyane Dufresne-Klaus
