

ITZIAR EPALZA URKIAGA (Vocal. On behalf of the Network of Technology Parks of the Basque Country)

She is currently the general director of the Network of Technology Parks of the Basque Country and Vice-President of APTE -Association of Science and Technology Parks of Spain-, she has a degree in Journalism with training in Business Management Standards and Business Transformation Values. At the same time she is an evaluator of Euskalit (Basque Foundation for Quality), is a mentor in the Inspira Project of the University of Deusto (Project for the promotion of the technological vocation among girls), is a member of the Advisory Board of Deusto Social Lab of the University of Deusto and a member of the Athletic Club Foundation Board of Trustees.

In the period 2013-2016 she has been Deputy Minister of Trade and Tourism in the Department of Economic Development and Competitiveness of the Basque Government.

Previously, partner and advisor of Business Management in Vilau; founding partner and advisor at N-Screens; partner and director of Start Digital Media Capital; partner and general director of Expressive Media Projects, S.L. and director of EITBnet, a company of the EITB communication group and journalist at the newspaper Deia and the radio Cadena Ser.